A NOTE FROM Artistic Director Elizabeth Johnson

Dear LBP Families, Students, and Guests,

Welcome to our Renaissance, our annual June show!! I am absolutely delighted to have you join us for this celebration of movement, artistry, and growth. This weekend is a culmination of a year filled with hard work, growth, creativity, and passion.

This year holds a particularly meaningful place in our hearts as we celebrate the anniversary of our studio. We named this year's show, Renaissance, as our studio embarks on it's 70th year. With the beginning of this new decade, we want to focus on the studio's rebirth with renewed spirit and purpose. We've experienced a revival not only in our choreography and technique, but in our connection to one another as a dance family.

Each performance you see this weekend is a reflection of that rebirth. Our dancers and teachers have poured their hearts into their craft, exploring both classical foundations and new directions.

To our dancers: we are endlessly proud of you. Your resilience, dedication, and love for dance shine on and off the stage.

To our families and supporters: thank you for your encouragement and trust. You are the backbone of everything we do.

To our teachers: your guidance and vision have been the spark behind this renaissance. Thank you for continuing to inspire and push us ever forward with your new ideas and creativity.

And, lastly, to our seniors: You are about to have a rebirth of your own as you set out to discover new places, new learning, new experiences, and new growth. You have been a small, close knit group for many years and are all very special to me. Your bond with each other, your joy and liveliness, and your goal to be inclusive of others make you unique and a hard act to follow. I hope those dancers coming up after you continue to follow your lead. I am so proud of each of you and you will be truly missed.

We hope this weekend's recital leaves you inspired, moved, and reminded of the beauty that emerges when we dare to begin again.

With deepest gratitude,

Elizabeth Johnson

The National Honor Society for Dance Arts™ (NHSDA) is a program of the National Dance Education Organization. The mission of NHSDA is:

★ To recognize outstanding artistic merit, leadership, and academic achievement in students studying dance in public and private schools in K-12 education, dance studios, cultural/community centers, performing arts organizations, and post-secondary education.

★ To foster an appreciation for dance as a true art form and one worthy of recognition and prestige.

These LBP Sophmores, Juniors and Seniors were inducted into the National Honor Society for Dance Arts in 2024 and 2025.

Bravo!

Congratulations to all on a spectacular performance at the LBP School of Dance's June show.

After a long year of hard work — in dance, school and beyond — summer can be a time for making lifelong memories under the sun with friends and family. Not only that, but it's also a great opportunity to work on your new goals for the future, too!

Whether you're facing specific challenges or just need someone to talk to, Meridian is here to help. Specialized mental health support is available now for individuals, children, families and couples — most in-person and online sessions can be scheduled in just a few days.

Congratulations and best wishes to all the dancers at LBP!

A photography studio for families of all stages & kids of all ages, including beloved pets & head shots, specializing in custom wall art.

Behind every dancer is someone making the magic happen: carpool captain, snack-packer, costume-fixer, applause-giver.

You've helped them show up, grow up, and shine.

Dance is their thing. Parenting is yours, full of love, hustle, and heart.

Now it's time to create a portrait that will remind you, when you both look back someday:

you did this together.

Congratulations on your 8th grade graduation! We are so proud of everything you've accomplished and the wonderful young person you are becoming. Remember to stay true to yourself, keep dreaming big, and never stop believing in what you can achieve. We'll always be cheering you on every step of the way.

Love,

Bubbe and Boompa 🖈

Congratulations, Leah!

From your first twirls in tutus to this proud milestone of 8th grade graduation, we have watched you grow into a smart, kind, and beautiful young woman. Your strength, creativity, and determination inspire us every day. We are so proud of everything you've accomplished and can't wait to see what's next in your journey.

With all our love,

Mom, Dad & Allie
